A new play by Martin Travers

New!

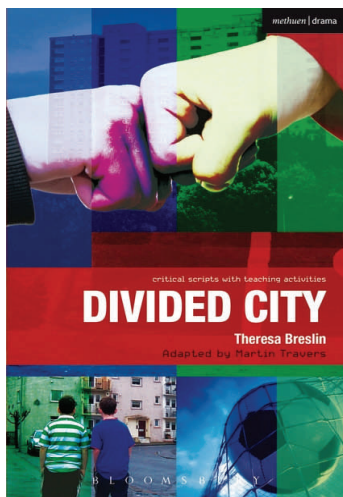

Sep 2013 • 9781472530707 • PB • 72 pages • £9.99 £8.00

This play contains strong language and as such is suitable for reader and audience aged 15+

You try your best. "Mornin! Your team were lucky last night sir". But; it just disnay work.

A modern parable set against the backdrop of the first Old Firm clash of the season. Funny, tough and thought-provoking, Scarfed for Life tells the story of two teenage friends caught in the crossfire of polite suburban prejudice and garden equipment. This is a hard-hitting play based on the experiences of discrimination and prejudice among the young people of Glasgow.

Divided City

Theresa Breslin

Adapted by Martin Travers

Jan 2013 • 9781408181577 • PB • 144 pages • £9.50 £7.50

Specifically designed to meet the needs of KS3, GSCSE and the Curriculum for Excellence.

Nominated for ten UK book awards, Theresa Breslin's hit novel tells of how two young boys - one Rangers fan, one Celtic fan - are drawn into a secret pact to help a young asylum seeker in a city divided by prejudice. Now adapted for the stage by Martin Travers, the play has already been produced to great success at Glasgow's Citizens Theatre.

This educational edition has been prepared by national Drama in Secondary English experts Ruth Moore and Paul Bunyan. Published in Methuen Drama's Critical Scripts series, the book features a detailed, structured scheme of work, utilising drama approaches to improve literary and language analysis. It also contains an extensive section of classroom activities all referenced to the latest assessment objectives.

Martin Travers is a dramatist based at Glasgow's Citizens Theatre where he is head of Learning and TAG Theatre Company.

Theresa Breslin is a popular Carnegie medal winning author, critically acclaimed for over thirty books, whose work has been filmed for television dramatised on radio.

Paul Bunyan is a Drama Education consultant and chair of NATE's drama committee

Ruth Moore is a Deputy Headteacher with many years of Leadership and Drama and English teaching experience.
